

March 14, 2010

- Anonymous: I am praying Lord that we all just trust in You to guide us through all our situations and give praise to You each and every day. I love you.
- Anonymous: Pray for Martin, Ben, Tony, Steve, and their family. God give them strength.
- Jim & Debbie Martini: Praise for LHCC members & attendees for being a loving body.
- Teresa Reber: Pray for my family that they might seek You out Lord in their lives. Pray that they might all come to see the glory of Your love.
- Anonymous: Prayers for my boys... that they will seek God for addictions and let God guide them to the right choices. Thank you.
- Don & Shelley Welsh: Please pray for Shelley who is sick with a bad cold or flu. Also prayer for my brother Doug & his battle with cancer. Our friend Jim who is in Haiti for another week.
- Remy Mallett: Prayer for my uncle Freddie as he struggles with chronic health problems.
- Maribeth Peralta: Please pray for my brother Gilbert to take a step and walk away from his slothful life to allow my parents to live their life without worry about him.
- Jessica Rohlfiing: Please continue prayer for my brothers, Armando, Edmundo, & Eric and also for Josh as well. Thank you.
- Anonymous: Heavenly Father, please be with my friend and I throughout the tournament season and keep us calm and level-headed. Please be with the boys, keep them safe and injury free and may they remember that it is You, Lord that gives them the ability to do what they do.
- Thomas H. Szczeszinski: Please pray that my son, Thomas Jr., to come back to the Lord and guide him through Gods eyes and heart.
- Chris Dagne: Prayer for my friend Julie that she seeks God for the answers.
- Tony Phillips: Prayer for my family.
- Becky Laubie: Prayer for healing for Bob Reynolds and Joanne's brother.
- Anonymous: Lord, please continue to give me strength. I am in need of Your guidance make me a stronger woman in faith. Please pray for my family.
- Jo Ann Willis: Thank you for your prayers my great granddaughter, she had surgery and it's looking good.
- Maggie Rohlfiing: Please pray for my aunt Elena, she had brain surgery last week and is not doing well. Doctors were not able to remove all the cancer. Prayer for my sister-in-law Christina, she is having medical problems and the doctors are not able to detect what is causing it. I give thanks to the Lord, for all of our blessings.